

Arum

INCLASS

DESIGN ARCHIRIVOLTO DESIGN
INCLASS, SPAIN

Arum is designed for transversal use in a wide variety of contexts. A unique armchair that stands out for its elegant curves, lightness and comfort. The wrap-around backrest is pleasant to the touch, fluid and ergonomic, while the seat is smoothly shaped like a river stone. The frame is constructed from steel tube with a polypropylene seat and back.

Arum armchairs are available in a wide selection of house colours, allowing a broad range of customisation possibilities to facilitate their integration into a multitude of environments and spaces.
