

Bloom

DESIGN STUDIO PASTINA
MIDJ HOUSE FABRICS, ITALY

The Bloom occasional table was born from the creativity of Studio Pastina, that transforms a classic piece of furniture into an element rich in colour and design.

The Bloom occasional table is available in two different sizes that reveal its ironic play of volumes that give life to harmonious contrasts. The base, upholstered in leather or fabric, looks like a soft cushion and performs a sound-absorbing function. This original base supports the top made of steel or HPL thanks to a very fine metal tube.

Thanks to its versatility, the Bloom occasional table accompanies lounges in a functional way.
