

Cori 4-Way Swivel

cantarutti

DESIGN ANDREA STEIDL
CANTARUTTI, ITALY

Gentle curves and natural lines follow the profile of Cori, an Andrea Steidl collection that invites you to relax between comfortable and soothing shapes. The shells essence is captured in the version without upholstery: a soft shape, with masterful curvature, and a subtle play of solids and voids demonstrate how only skillful workmanship can meet the most daring creative projects.

Cori is adaptable to various contexts. From hotel lobbies to waiting rooms, from lounge areas to domestic environments, this transversal collection is the culmination of comfort, aesthetic research and contemporary vision. It can be upholstered in a wide range of colours and materials or, upon request, realised in the precious wooden version.
