DESIGN JUN YASUMOTO
COLOS, ITALY

With Daily, designer Jun Yasumoto and Colos reimagine a classic industrial concept: the union of a wooden seat and backrest with a sturdy metal frame. The focus was to retain the design's traditional simplicity while introducing subtle refinements, creating a piece that suits more sophisticated environments.

Daily communicates both confidence and elegance. Its familiar form resonates with a timeless aesthetic, while attention to proportion, detail, and comfort elevate it beyond the ordinary. Practicality is also key, as Daily can be stacked in either of its two versions—with or without armrests. An underseat cover protects the wood when stacked, ensuring durability.

Ideal for a range of settings, Daily is designed to enhance classic, contemporary, public, and home spaces alike.
