

Exa 5-Way Castor

INCLASS

DESIGN JONATHAN PRESTWICH
INCLASS, SPAIN

Exa embodies a refined balance between elegance and practicality, seamlessly integrating into diverse environments – from collaborative workspaces to executive meeting areas. Designed by Jonathan Prestwich, EXA features an architectural aluminium frame with fluid lines inspired by nature, offering both visual appeal and structural integrity. The collection includes both four- and five-spoke base options, with or without casters, and incorporates intuitive tilt mechanisms for enhanced comfort and adaptability.
