LIVONI, ITALY

Frantz is a collection of seating inspired by the craftsmanship of the Udine area in Italy. Referencing the revolution in timber chair design over the past century. Junctions are uniquely crafted, linking the armchair together in a seamless and original way. The legs extend past the seat and connect harmoniously to the backrest, wrapped in woven rattan or mesh, which appears to float above, achieving a physical lightness.

The Frantz family comprises an armchair, barstool in both counter and bar height and a lounge chair.
