

Glider

DESIGN LUCA NICHETTO
METAL, NETHERLANDS

With its organic form and refined detailing, Glider offers an inviting and relaxed seating experience for lobbies, lounges and contemporary interiors. Designed by Luca Nichetto, this distinctive armchair is characterised by its gentle upholstered curves and exceptional craftsmanship, combining advanced upholstery techniques with outstanding comfort.

The generous seat, sculpted arm wings, seamless connection between the frame and seat shell, elegant stitching and extensive selection of premium fabrics and leathers enhance Glider's appeal and authenticity. Every element has been carefully considered, with its refined craftsmanship visible from every angle – including the rear – making it an ideal choice for open-plan environments.

Glider creates a sense of comfort and embrace while maintaining an open and welcoming presence. With its carefully balanced proportions and timeless design, this versatile armchair complements a wide range of public spaces and residential interiors.
