

Harvey

et al.

DESIGN FRANCESCO FACCIN
ET AL., ITALY

Ode to the Easel. Et al. presents Harvey, the new table system designed by Francesco Faccin. An innovative and contemporary project paying tribute to tradition while meeting modern day requirements. Harvey stands out for its powered three-foot easel, which makes it suitable for contemporary and flexible workspaces, which now more than ever, need to adapt to ever changing work environment.

The power solution is built into the easel, allowing the entire surface to be powered and ensuring flexibility all day long. Power and USB sockets can charge computers, phones and cameras, as well as powering coffee machines, or even the office toaster during lunch.
