DESIGN CANTARUTTI STUDIO
CANTARUTTI BEECH TIMBER FINISHES, ITALY

With its simple, clean and linear structure, Inga conveys lightness and serenity. Its slim but robust figure is enhanced by an elegant profile in stark contrast to the rigidity of the structure. The armchair, stackable like the chair, is distinguished by the curved shape of the armrests, which have their own particular character.

The shades of the wood and the materials chosen for the upholstery emphasize an orderly, functional and reassuring aesthetic that infuses warmth and solidity: sensations that Inga manages to bring with effortless naturalness to any interior it resides.
