DESIGN CANTARUTTI STUDIO
CANTARUTTI ASH TIMBER FINISHES, ITALY

Different volumes outline light and balanced proportions. A gently curved backrest, made from a single element of ash, defines a design that characterises the entire collection and finds its maximum expression in the wide and enveloping armchair. Generous without being bulky, it enhances any interior with elegance and dynamism.

Karma gives a timeless welcome to public and residential spaces. The seat, woven or upholstered, enhances the minimal features of the wooden structure, finishing the simple and sophisticated charm of this comfortable seating family.
