

Koki Wire Corda

DESALTO

DESIGN POCCHI + DONDOLI
DESALTO, ITALY

A softer iteration of Koki Wire emerges, where the character is amplified through the striking interplay between the woven rope finish, which takes the center stage as the seat's protagonist, and the robust metal framework. This rendition is imbued with a sense of weightlessness, simplicity, and adaptability, seamlessly integrating into both interior and exterior settings, as well as private and public environments.
