

Moby

DESIGN TEJ CHAUHAN
ARTIFORT, NETHERLANDS

With its playful and expressive form, Moby is a versatile seating accessory designed for both residential and workplace environments. Created by designer Tej Chauhan, its user-focused design combines personality with purpose, resulting in a piece that is as functional as it is visually engaging.

Designed to encourage connection and informal interaction, Moby is easy to move thanks to its integrated grip, which also provides a convenient place to store small items. This adaptable piece offers a contemporary approach to social seating, reflecting the evolving ways people live, work and connect.

Known for its bold shapes and innovative injection moulding techniques, Moby delivers a distinctive combination of practicality, creativity and modern design.
