

Peek

MIDJ

DESIGN STUDIO PASTINA
MIDJ, ITALY

Peek is a modern trompe-l'oeil; a visual illusion in art, used to trick the eye into perceiving a painted detail as a three-dimensional object. Studio Pastina borrows this concept from the art world, playing with depth and perspective through their new mirror collection.

The arch shape and the complimentary smoked mirror give the illusion of greater depth, while the central space is reserved for reflection. The mirror becomes dynamic and an object of great personality.
