LIVONI
— since 1895

DESIGN MARKUS JOHANSSON
LIVONI, ITALY

Popsicle is a contemporary design bridging the contrast between industrial and handcrafted solutions. An embodiment of designer Markus Johansson's vision to combine technology, function and form with the goal of making everyday life more content, Popsicle is an extraordinarily comfortable chair.

Popsicle is complimented with a generous barstool in various heights to suit client requirements, and as a low stool for breakout, workplace or casual arrangements.
