

Scancaro

DESIGN ANTONINO SCIORTINO
LACIVIDINA, ITALY

Scancaro is a piece of sculpture as well as a furnishing accessory. This low table collection combines both art, design and craftsmanship and is suitable for a host of uses and interpretations creating a unique composition wherever it is placed.

The distinct feature of the Scancaro is highlighted by its name, which translates to "it bent" in Sicilian. The clear slants give an original twist and the artisan experience of the maker can be felt with every touch of the perfectly smooth surface.
