MIDJ

DESIGN PAOLO VERNIER
MIDJ, ITALY

Sèsamo reimagines the extendable dining table with minimalist elegance. Designed by Paolo Vernier, Sèsamo features a hidden mechanism that allows the table to expand effortlessly, revealing its extension only when desired. This seamless design ensures the mechanism remains concealed whether the table is open or closed, maintaining a sleek and uncluttered aesthetic. Available in various sizes and finishes, Sèsamo adapts to contemporary spaces, blending functionality with refined style.
