DESIGN MONICA FÖRSTER
METAL, NETHERLANDS

A memorable first impression is created through a balance of professional elegance and individual character. With the fully upholstered Suit chair, Monica Förster introduces a new level of seating comfort for restaurants, workplaces and private interiors where style and personality are equally valued.

Defined by its distinctive silhouette, elegant open back and flowing contours, the Suit chair is carefully shaped to follow the natural lines of the body. Its generous upholstery provides a welcoming sense of comfort, enveloping the sitter like a perfectly tailored garment. Combining sophistication, individuality and refined craftsmanship, the Suit chair brings an exclusive elegance to any interior.
