DESIGN DIRK WINKEL
WÄSTBERG, SWEDEN

The w227 Winkel Collection, designed by Dirk Winkel for Wästberg, is a series of lighting fixtures that perfectly blend minimalism with practicality. Drawing inspiration from geometric forms, The Winkel collection features a range of lamps that are both functional and sculptural, offering a refined yet understated presence in any room.

Crafted with precision and high-quality materials, The w227 Winkel collection includes a clamp, fixed and task base, each designed with clean lines and balanced proportions. The simple yet striking designs make each piece versatile, seamlessly fitting into a variety of spaces—from modern homes to commercial interiors.

With their focus on light as both an element of design and function, The w227 Winkel collection provides soft, ambient illumination that enhances any room while maintaining an elegant, minimalist aesthetic. Whether used as a standalone piece or grouped together, these lights offer a timeless design solution for those seeking sophistication in simplicity.
