Web

DESIGN   GIANCARLO BISAGLIA
OFFICE EDIT, AUSTRALIA

Web is a collection of multipurpose chairs and armchairs with a contemporary but timeless design, suitable for both public and private settings. Embracing simplicity and functionality, the Web stacking chair frees itself of all superfluous design elements focusing on purity of form.

Seat and backrests are available in plastic, mesh (backrest only) or upholstered for additional comfort. Robust and ergonomic, Web takes centre stage in contract settings providing a range of options and accessories to improve comfort and functionality.
